

Arbill CEO Julie Copeland Honored as one of the Inaugural WBENC Women of Distinction

Philadelphia, PA – Arbill, a privately held, award-winning safety company, headquartered in Philadelphia, PA, has announced that CEO, Julie Copeland has been selected as one of the Inaugural WBENC Women of Distinction. Julie will be honored during the 20th Anniversary celebration at WBENC's annual Summit & Salute event taking place March 21-23, 2017 in New Orleans, Louisiana.

Arbill CEO Julie Copeland

“As we celebrate our 20th Anniversary, we are so proud of the inaugural group of the Women of Distinction, including Arbill’s CEO, Julie Copeland for her leadership and commitment to our organization and the business community”, shared WBENC President and CEO Pamela Prince-Eason.

Julie is proud to be included as one of the 25 women leaders who have demonstrated a deep commitment to the organization and to breaking down barriers for women owned businesses in the corporate and government supply chains. The Women of Distinction program was established to create a strategic role for highly successful and dedicated Women’s Business Enterprises (WBEs) as advisors to WBENC, supporting the growth and success of all WBEs. WBENC is honored to showcase the Women of Distinction as they celebrate 20 years of success.

“I am thrilled to receive this honor and be a part of such an incredible collection of leaders” shared Julie. “It is amazing to see that my actions in leading by example and my words of inspiration are having a multiplier effect. Copeland concluded.

Copeland has been a strong advocate for women-owned businesses throughout her career and has been a member of WBE, since 2005. In 2014, she served as Co-chair of the WBE National Conference & Business Fair and Chair of the Women’s Enterprise Leadership forum. Copeland is passionate about engaging WBEs in the robust educational and networking opportunities available to them and was part of the first Envoy program reaching out to the WBE community for the Women’s Business Enterprise Council (WBENC) of PA-DE-NJ.

CORPORATE HEADQUARTERS

10450 Drummond Road, Philadelphia, PA 19154 ■ 800-523-5367 ■ 800-426-5808 fax ■ info@arbill.com ■ www.arbill.com

For Arbill, Copeland has driven strategic and expansive growth since becoming CEO in 2005. She expanded Arbill's business to a national footprint, developed Arbill's own safety product line - Truline®, and has transformed Arbill into a full-service safety solutions company. Through its safety products, EH&S consulting, training and support services, Arbill is at the forefront of protecting the lives of workers across the country.

For information about the event of the WBENC Women of Distinction, please visit <http://summit.wbenc.org>, and for information about Arbill, please visit www.arbill.com.

About Arbill

As the leading provider of safety services, safety technology and safety products, Arbill is literally saving lives every day at industrial worksites throughout the United States. An award-winning supplier of all-things safety, for more than 70 years, Arbill's clients have counted on Arbill to make sure their employees go home safely after every shift. To assure our clients meet their safety goals, Arbill's safety professionals are revolutionizing the way companies incorporate safety into their daily routines. Through Arbill's comprehensive safety offerings – comprising nearly 50 safety services and technology tools and more than 200,000 stocked safety products (including over 800 items manufactured under Arbill's highly-respected Truline brand), Arbill makes it easy for safety conscious firms to provide their team members with the tools they need to create a culture of safety throughout their organization and reduce injuries, all while lowering their safety spend. Arbill is a women owned business and is a member of the WBENC.

CORPORATE HEADQUARTERS

10450 Drummond Road, Philadelphia, PA 19154 ■ 800-523-5367 ■ 800-426-5808 fax ■ info@arbill.com ■ www.arbill.com